

The South Carolina Council on the Holocaust Teacher Advisory Committee
Presents the 12th Annual Teacher Workshop

Lessons from the Holocaust: Voices from the Past

Friday, October 20, 2017 Columbia College; Columbia, S.C.

Registration and Refreshments 8:00 AM - 8:30 AM;

Workshop 8:30 AM – 4:15 PM

Keynote Speakers:

Trude Schonthal Heller

Holocaust Survivor & South Carolina Resident

Trude Schonthal Heller was born in 1922 in Vienna, Austria, and met her future husband Max at a summer resort when she was 15. Her family lost their home and two stores when Nazi-controlled Germany annexed Austria. She and her family lived as refugees in Belgium. Later, they were able to emigrate to the United States. Heller married Max Heller, the future mayor of Greenville, in 1942.

Alexandra Zapruder

Author of Salvaged Pages

Alexandra Zapruder began her career as a member of the founding staff of the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. A graduate of Smith College, she served as the researcher for the museum's exhibition for young visitors, Remember the Children, Daniel's Story. She earned her Master's Degree in Education at Harvard University in 1995 and returned to the Holocaust Museum in 1996.

Her first book, Salvaged Pages: Young Writers' Diaries of the Holocaust, won the National Jewish Book Award in the Holocaust category. She wrote and co-produced I'm Still Here, a documentary film for young audiences based on her book, which aired on MTV in May 2005. The film was awarded the Jewish Image Award for Best Television Special by the National Foundation for Jewish Culture and was nominated for two Emmy awards.

She is also the author of Twenty-Six Seconds: A Personal History of the Zapruder Film, which tells the story of her grandfather's home movie of President Kennedy's assassination.
